My mission is to create an army of conscious, ethical thought leaders through publishing, so our screams to end the exploitation of animals, humans, and the environment will become too loud to be ignored.

If you believe you got value from the live seminar, please recommend the support group to one or more people you know who should write a book so they also get the free resources – here's how to invite them.

- 1) Click +Invite on the Business Authors Support Group homepage:

2) Invite friends on Facebook and/or via email

- Time-limited special offer for VBT live seminar attendees:

Get free 14-day access to the budget-friendly coaching community - Conscious Authors Alliance
(and a lifetime discount of 15% if you wish to stay after):
